HEADQUARTERS 598TH FIELD ARTILLERY BATTALION
Camp Breckinridge, Kentucky.

December 17, 1942

SUBJECT: Commendation of Chaplain (1st Lt.) L. Barnwell Washington.

TO : Whom it may concern:

Chaplain (1st Lt.) L. Barnwell Washington served with this organization for a period of two months. During this time his work was excellent. He was always cheerful, cooperative and attentive to duty. He is a good speaker and delivers a very inspiring sermon.

The morale of newly arriving men was kept high by his efforts. He initiated many constructive ideas that were for the bettering of the morals and ideals of the soldiers among which he served. His services were well attended and enjoyed by all.

His transfer from this organization occasioned regret and very best wishes from all with whom he had associated.

ROBERT C. ROSS,
Lt. Col. 598 F.A. Bn.,
Commanding.
